

Title – Subsurface irrigation (Root Feast system)

Concluding Note

Root Feast system is useful where drought condition occurs. The has low evaporation losses and costs. But if the water requirement of tress is maximum then no of discharge be increased.